Pastor Appreciation

10 simple ways to say thank you.

1. Write a heartfelt note
   Tell them one specific way their ministry has made a difference.
2. Pray for them by name
   Ask how you can pray for their faith, health and family.
3. Give them room to rest
   Respect days off, family time and healthy boundaries.
4. Share your faith story
   Let them know how God has used their ministry in your life.
5. Offer practical help
   Ask whether a meal, errand or volunteer hand would help.
6. Encourage their family
   Show genuine care for spouses and children without expectations.
7. Bless them within your means
   A coffee, a card or a thoughtful gesture goes a long way.
8. Thank the wider church stream
   Recognize those serving faithfully alongside your pastor.
9. Serve your church joyfully
   Help share a ministry responsibility when you can.
10. Keep appreciating them
    Don't save your kind words for just one week of the year.

Choose one thing you can do this week.

The most meaningful appreciation is often simple and personal.

Show your appreciation at UCBRADIO.COM